

Generation to Generation - Part 6

(Looking Back to Our Past)

- I. There are some people in our past whom we should remember and revere.
- II. There are some people in our past whose continuing influence on us may call for repentance.
 - A. Every person is held accountable for their own sins.
 - B. There is such a thing as a generational curse.
 - C. Some strongholds might be broken when we confess the sins of our ancestors.
 - D. Confessing the sins of our ancestors is a biblical example for us.
- III. You can't get past your past without Christ. (Galatians 3:13; Psalm 8:2; Psalm 37:39; Psalm 129:1-4)
- IV. Our problems in our past can become the avenue to jubilee in our future.
 - A. What brings us tears will lead us to grace. (Isaiah 60:20; Zechariah 8:19)
