

October 2018 Bible Reading Plan

Preparing for Christmas: The Gospel of Mark

Mark's Gospel moves fast with nonstop action. He gives us the briefest account of the Four Gospels, and the first Gospel ever written. So, this month we will add some prophecies from the Old Testament book of Zechariah. He makes more references to Jesus than any of the other minor prophet books. He is often compared to the prophet Isaiah. Zechariah points to Jesus' birth, His second coming, His entrance into Jerusalem on a colt, His betrayal for 30 pieces of silver, His crucifixion, and His ultimate reign as ruler of the Kingdom of God on earth. Let's read about our Lord and Savior from the next-to-last book in the Old Testament.

Reading together,
Pastor David
